

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The Board of Fremont Petroleum Corporation Limited (Fremont) (formerly Austin Exploration Limited) seeks to practice the highest ethical and commercial standards while executing its responsibilities in directing the business and affairs of the Group on behalf of its shareholders by whom they are elected and to whom they are accountable.

The Board of Fremont has considered the 3rd Edition of the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations as published by the ASX Corporate Governance Council (ASXCGC) on 27 March 2014. ASX Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires the Group to disclose the extent to which it follows or diverges from these best practice recommendations in its Annual Report.

Additional information relating to corporate governance practices that the Group has adopted can be found on the Group's web site: www.fremontpetroleum.com.

The Role of the Board and Management

The Group has formalised and disclosed the roles and responsibilities of the Board and those delegated to Senior Management.

The Board of the Group is responsible for the overall corporate governance of Fremont, including its ethical behaviour, strategic direction, establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of those goals with a view to optimising Group performance and maximising shareholder value.

Management is responsible for implementing the strategic and management plan and operating within the risk appetite set by the board and for all other aspects of the day to day running of the company. Management is also responsible for providing the board with accurate, timely and clear information to enable the board to perform its duties. Full details of the matters reserved to the board and to senior management are available on the Group's web site at www.fremontpetroleum.com.

Scheduled meetings of the Board are held at least six times a year and the Board meets on other occasions to deal with matters that require attention between scheduled meetings. The responsibility for the operation and administration of the consolidated entity is delegated by the Board to the Chief Executive Officer.

The Board is responsible for:

- Setting the strategic direction of the Group and establishing goals to ensure these strategic objectives are met;
- Appointing the Chief Executive Officer, setting objectives for the Chief Executive Officer and reviewing performance against those objectives, ensuring appropriate policies and procedures are in place for recruitment, training, remuneration and succession planning;
- Monitoring financial performance including approval of the annual, half-yearly and quarterly financial reports and liaison with the Group's auditors;
- Approving operating budgets and major capital expenditure;
- Ensuring that risks facing the Group and its controlled entities have been identified and ensuring that appropriate and adequate controls, monitoring and reporting mechanisms are in place;
- Receiving detailed briefings from senior management on a regular basis during the year;
- Approving the Boards of Directors of subsidiary companies;
- Ensuring the Group complies with the law and conforms to the highest standards of financial and ethical behaviour; and
- Ensuring the market and shareholders are fully informed of material developments.

Fremont has obligations to its stakeholders to ensure the Group is managed with appropriate due diligence and that all necessary processes are implemented to minimise risk and maximise business opportunities. To this end, all commercial arrangements, capital expenditure, operational expenditure and other commitments are appropriately documented and have been authorised by either the Chief Executive Officer or the Board as appropriate.

The composition of the Board is determined in accordance with the Group’s constitution and the following principles and guidelines:

- The Board should comprise of at least three Directors with at least two Non-Executive Directors;
- The Board should comprise of Directors with an appropriate range of qualifications and expertise; and
- The Board should meet formally at least six times per annum and informally on an as required basis with all Directors being made aware of, and having available, all necessary information, to participate in an informed discussion of all agenda items.

Directors in Office

At the date of this statement the following directors are the Group’s directors and their independence is noted in the table:

Name	Position	Independent	Service - Years
Mr. Guy Goudy	Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board	No	9
Mr Tim Hart	Managing Director and Chief Operating Officer	No	7
Mr. Stuart Middleton	Non-Executive Director	Yes	3
Mr. Andrew Blow	Non-Executive Director	Yes	2
Mr. Sam Jarvis	Non-Executive Director	Yes	1

The skills, experience, expertise and tenure of each director are disclosed in the Directors’ Report within the Annual Report.

Director Independence

Guy Goudy and Tim Hart are not considered independent.

In assessing the independence of directors, the board follows the ASX guidelines as set out below:

An independent director is a non-executive director (i.e. is not a member of management) and:

- Is not a substantial shareholder of the Group or an officer of, or otherwise associated directly with, a substantial shareholder of the Group;
- Within the last three years has not been employed in an executive capacity by the Group or another Group member, or been a director after ceasing to hold any such employment;
- Within the last three years has not been a principal of a material professional adviser or a material consultant to the Group or another Group member, or an employee materially associated with the service provided;
- Is not a material supplier or customer of the Group or other Group member, or an officer of or otherwise associated directly or indirectly with a material supplier or customer;
- Has no material contractual relationship with the Group or another Group member other than as a director of the Group;

- Has not served on the Board for a period which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the director's ability to act in the best interests of the Group; and
- Is free from any interest and any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the director's ability to act in the best interests of the Group.

Through the Remuneration and Nominations Committee, which has met informally during the current financial year to consider appointments to management and the board, directors would consider the balance of skills and experience required of board members for the size and state of development of the Group. The Board believes that it has the right numbers and skill sets within its board members for the current size of the Group, and is confident that each non-executive director brings independent judgement to bear on board decisions.

Where additional skills are considered necessary for specific purposes, access is made to independent professional advice at the expense of the Group.

Chairman

Mr Guy Goudy, the Executive Chairman, is not considered independent by the board under the guidelines as set out above.

The roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer are not exercised by the same individual.

Appointment to the Board

The Board has appointed a Remuneration and Nomination Committee to identify and recommend potential director appointments. Where a casual vacancy arises during the year, the Committee undertakes a search to identify the most suitable candidate with the appropriate experience and expertise to ensure a balanced and effective board. As part of the search the Committee undertakes appropriate checks of the candidate's experience, character, education and background. Any director appointed during the year to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the current board, holds office until the next Annual General Meeting and is then eligible for re-election by the shareholders.

The company provides details of each director standing for election or re-election at the Annual General Meeting to assist the shareholders to make their decision whether to elect or re-elect the director.

A copy of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee's Charter is available on the Group's web site at www.fremontpetroleum.com. New directors receive a letter of appointment which sets out the terms of their appointment. On appointment, an induction program is available to directors that include one-on-one sessions with members of the senior management team.

Company Secretary

The Company Secretary is responsible to the Board through the Chairman, to oversee the effective functioning of the board and for advising the board and its committees on governance matters.

Evaluation of Senior Executives

Senior executives, including the Chief Executive Officer, have a formal job description and letter of appointment describing their term of office, duties, rights, responsibilities and entitlements upon termination. There are no retirement schemes or retirement benefits other than statutory benefits for non-executive directors.

The performance of senior executives is reviewed annually before the budgets are approved for the next financial year. This process is a formal one with the executive's performance assessed against Group, division and personal benchmarks. Benchmarks are agreed with the respective senior executives and reviews are based upon the degree of achievement against those benchmarks.

Induction procedures are in place to allow new senior executives to participate fully and actively in management decision-making. The induction program includes orientation of:

- The Group's financial position, strategies, operations and risk management policies; and
- The respective rights, duties, responsibilities and roles of the board and senior executives.

A performance evaluation for senior executives has taken place in the reporting period and was in accordance with the process disclosed.

Ethical Business Practices

The Group has adopted a Code of Conduct to maintain confidence in the Group's integrity, its legal obligations and the expectations of its stakeholders.

The Group is committed to being a socially responsible corporate citizen, using honest and fair business practices, to act in the best interests of clients so as to achieve the best outcome for shareholders.

The Board has procedures in place for reporting any matters that may give rise to unethical practices or conflicts between the interests of a director or senior executive and those of the Group. These procedures are reviewed as required by the board. The Code of Conduct is available on the Group's web site at www.fremontpetroleum.com.

Shareholding and Trading

The Board encourages directors and senior executives to own shares in the Group to further link their interests with the interests of all shareholders. Trading of shares by directors or senior executives is prohibited under certain circumstances and as described in the ASX Listing Rules and during certain periods of the financial year. A director or senior executive must not deal in the Group shares at any time when he or she has unpublished information which, if generally available, might affect the share price. Directors are required to notify the Chairman and the Company Secretary prior to any dealing. Key Management Personnel (KMP) and their closely related parties of the Group are prohibited from hedging their exposure to incentive remuneration for arrangements entered into on or after 1 July 2011.

The Share Trading Policy is available at the Group's web site at www.fremontpetroleum.com.

Insurance

The Group has in place a Directors and Officers liability insurance policy providing a specified level of cover for current and former Directors and executive Officers of the Group against liabilities incurred whilst acting in their respective capacity.

Safeguard Integrity

The Board has established an Audit Committee comprising of two Board members. This committee operates under a charter to enable it to perform its role and responsibilities. The Charter is available at the Group's web site at www.fremontpetroleum.com.

Where considered appropriate, the Group's external auditors and the Group's management are invited to attend meetings. The current members of the Audit Committee are:

Chair: Mr. Stuart Middleton
Members: Mr. Andrew Blow and Mr Guy Goudy.

The qualifications of members of the committee together with their attendances at committee meetings is disclosed in the Directors' Report within the Annual Report.

The role of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board fulfil its responsibilities and monitoring the following:

- Adequacy of the company's financial reporting process;
- Whether the financial statements provide a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the Group;
- Compliance with laws and regulations in respect to financial reporting;
- Provision of effective and efficient audits;
- Meeting with external auditors on a twice-yearly basis and informally as circumstances require; and
- Recommending to the Board the appointment, rotation, removal and remuneration of the external auditors, and review their terms of engagement, and the scope and quality of the audit.

The Audit Committee provides the Board with additional assurances regarding the reliability of financial information for inclusion in the financial statements.

The Committee would also receive from the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer a signed statement that in their opinion the Financial Statements and notes to the Accounts within the Annual Report are in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, comply with the Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations 2001 and give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Group and are based upon a sound system of risk management and internal compliance and control. The statement is provided to the board prior to the signing of the Directors' Declaration in the Annual Report.

The committee is chaired by a director who is not the chairman of the board.

Performance of Directors

In accordance with Principle 8(1) of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations the Board is required to conduct a review of the performance of its directors and the board's function as a whole during the period. The evaluation of directors was undertaken in June 2016.

Independent Advice

The Board recognises that in certain circumstances individual directors may need to seek independent professional advice, at the expense of the Group. Any advice so received will be made available to other directors.

Timely and Balanced Disclosure

The Board recognises the need to comply with ASX Listing Rule 3.1 concerning continuous disclosure.

At each meeting of directors, consideration is given as to whether notice of material information concerning the Group, including its financial position, performance, ownership and governance has been made available to all investors.

The Continuous Disclosure Policy also requires senior executives in possession of disclosable information to comply with that policy. The Continuous Disclosure Policy is available on the Group's web site at www.fremontpetroleum.com.au

Communication with Shareholders

The Board aims to ensure that shareholders, on behalf of whom they act, are informed of all major developments affecting the Group's activities and its state of affairs, including information necessary to assess the performance of the directors.

Communication with shareholders is achieved through the distribution of the following information:

- The Annual Report is available to all shareholders;
- The Half Yearly Report which is available on the Group's web site;
- The Annual General Meeting and other meetings called to obtain shareholder approval for board action as appropriate. Shareholders are encouraged to attend and participate at the Group's Annual General Meeting and other General Meetings;
- Letters to shareholders when considered to be appropriate and informative;
- Announcements to the Australian Securities Exchange; and
- Investor information through the Group's web page at www.fremontpetroleum.com.

The Group strives to ensure that Group announcements via the ASX are made in a timely manner, are factual, do not omit material information and are expressed in a clear and objective manner.

Shareholders' Role

The shareholders of the Group are responsible for voting on the election of directors at the Annual General Meeting in accordance with the constitution.

All directors, other than the Tim Hart (appointed CEO 15 July 2016), are subject to re-election by rotation, no later than every three years.

The Annual General Meeting also provides shareholders with the opportunity to express their views on matters concerning the Group and to vote on other items of business for resolution by shareholders.

The Group's auditor, Grant Thornton Audit Pty Ltd, make available a partner of the firm, to be in attendance at the Annual General Meeting and to be available to answer shareholder questions in relation to the audit.

Diversity

Diversity includes, but is not limited to, gender, age, ethnicity and cultural background. The Group is committed to diversity and recognises the benefits arising from employee and board diversity and the importance of benefitting from all available talent. A copy of the Group's diversity policy is available at the Group's website at www.fremontpetroleum.com.

The Group will annually monitor the progress and effectiveness of objectives developed in the policy. Given the size and nature of the Group's workforce the Group has chosen not to implement measurable objectives on which the Group will report on.

Risk Management

The entire Board is responsible for overseeing the risk management function. The Group believes that it is crucial for all board members to be a part of the process.

The Board is responsible for ensuring the risks and opportunities are identified on a timely basis.

The Board has a number of mechanisms in place to ensure the management's objectives and activities are aligned with the risks identified by the Board. These include the following:

- Implementation of board approved operating plans and budgets;
- Board monitoring of progress against these budgets, including the monitoring of key performance indicators of both a financial and non - financial nature; and
- The establishment of committees to report on specific risk as identified.

Internal Risk Management System Compliance

Management is accountable to the Chief Executive Officer to ensure that operating efficiency, effectiveness of risk management procedures, internal compliance control systems and controls and policies are all being monitored. Management has designed and implemented a risk management and internal control system to manage the Group's material business risks and reports to the board at each meeting on the effective management of those risks. The Group has developed a series of operational risks which the Group believes to be inherent in the industry in which the Group operates. These include:

- Changed operating, market or regulatory environments;
- Fluctuations in demand volumes;
- Fluctuations in commodity prices;
- Fluctuations in exchange rates; and
- Increasing costs of operations.

These risk areas are provided here to assist investors better understand the nature of the significant risks faced by the Group.

The Board requires the Executive Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, and Chief Financial Officer every half year to provide a statement confirming that a sound system of risk management and internal control is in place and that the system is operating effectively in all material respects in relation to financial risks. The Board has received that assurance.

Monitoring Performance

The Board and senior management monitor the performance of all divisions through the preparation of monthly management accounts. The monthly management accounts are prepared using accrual accounting techniques and report each business unit's result as contribution after overhead allocation. These monthly management accounts are compared to monthly budgets, which have been set allowing for the seasonality of anticipated revenues and costs in each of the divisions.

The monitoring of the Group's performance by the Board and management assists in identifying the correct allocation of resources and staff to maximize the overall return to shareholders.

A performance evaluation for senior management was undertaken during the year and was in accordance with the process developed by the Board for that purpose.

Details of the structure of non-executive directors' and senior executives' remuneration are included in the Remuneration Report within the Directors' Report in the Annual Report.

During the year the Board undertook an informal performance review of the Board, its committees and its directors. The conclusions of the self - assessment of the Board's performance during the previous year and any recommendations for improvement which become apparent from that review are discussed by the Board.

The performance evaluation was undertaken using the process disclosed above.

Nomination and Remuneration

The Board Remuneration and Nomination Committee comprises:

Chair: Stuart Middleton

Members: Andrew Blow

The role of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee is to make recommendations to the Board on the following matters:

- Determine the appropriate size and composition of the Board;
- Determine the terms and conditions of appointment to and retirement from the Board;
- Develop appropriate criteria for Board membership;
- Reviewing membership of the board and proposing candidates for consideration by the Board;
- Arranging a review of the Board's own performance;
- Reviewing the remuneration and incentive framework for the CEO and Non-Executive Directors;
- Determining the Group's remuneration plans, policies and practices; and
- Considering general remuneration policies and practices, recruitment and termination policies and superannuation requirements.

The committee did not meet formally during the year.

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter is available at the Group's web site at www.fremontpetroleum.com.
